

HOW TO FIND CADOGAN HALL

The easiest way to travel to Cadogan Hall is by public transport. It is located within 2 minutes walk of Sloane Square London Underground Station which is served by both District and Circle lines one stop away from Victoria Railway Station. Turn right out of the Underground Station, cross Cliveden Place and walk up Sedding Street to the Hall.

Frequent bus services stop in Sloane Square and neighbouring Streets including King's Road, Sloane Street and Lower Sloane Street. Bus services include numbers: 11, 19, 22, 137, 211, 319, 360 and C1.

Taxis are numerous in the area and there is a taxi rank located on Sloane Square opposite the Underground Station.

Customers are reminded that on-street parking is strictly controlled with the nearest car park located half a mile away in Cadogan Place to the North.

TAM SIN WALEY-COHE N PERFORMS THE LARK ASCENDING

Vaughan Williams' masterpieces feature in this evening's programme with Tamsin Waley-Cohen performing Classic FM's no1 The Lark Ascending. Elgar's wistful Serenade for Strings provides gentle contrast to Britten's virtuoso tribute to his teacher and mentor, the Variations on a Theme of Frank Bridge, anticipating our Britten centenary celebrations in 2013

Vaughan Williams	Fantasia on a Theme of Thomas Tallis
Elgar	Serenade for Strings
Vaughan Williams	The Lark Ascending
Britten	Variations on a Theme of Frank Bridge
Tamsin Waley-Cohen	violin

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES WITH JULIAN LLOYD WEBBER

We welcome Julian Lloyd Webber and his wife the cellist Jiaxin Cheng in this evening's programme of musical Arrivals and Departures, opening with one of Handel's most well-loved works complemented by Alec Roth's delightful and sultry Departure of the Queen of Sheba depicting the legendary lovers in their garden of earthly delights. Haydn concludes in his imitable style...

Handel	Arrival of the Queen of Sheba
Haydn	Cello Concerto in C major
Roth	Departure of the Queen of Sheba
Vivaldi	Concerto for 2 Cellos in G minor
Haydn	Symphony no45 Farewell
Julian Lloyd Webber	cello
Jiaxin Cheng	cello
David Curtis	conductor

"While concert artists rarely win mass acclaim, Julian Lloyd Webber's star shines brightly among the deserving few."

THE ENGLISH GENIUS - VAUGHAN WILLIAMS AND JOHN IRELAND

John Ireland's lush, romantic piano concerto was staple repertoire in the BBC Proms for many years and OOTS recording with Mark Bebbington under conductor David Curtis has received outstanding critical acclaim. Vaughan Williams' Wasps overture provides a fizzing opening and his romantic and gentle fifth symphony concludes the evening

A "PASTORAL" EVENING

Tonight's programme is in partnership with music.se, celebrating great British and Swedish music and musicians and we are delighted to include two of Sweden's rising stars, violinist Hugo Ticcianti performing Albert Schnelzer's violin concerto. Delius Song before Sunrise and Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony provide an idyllic overture and conclusion to the evening

Delius	Song before sunrise
Albert Schnelzer	Violin Concerto*
Beethoven	Symphony no6, The Pastoral
Hugo Ticcianti	violin
David Curtis	conductor

* World premiere

"Hugo has a rare ability to convey a profound understanding of the music and shed light on its spiritual intent" Arvo Pärt

"the premiere of Albert Schnelzer's A Freak in Burbank reveals an exceptional flair for orchestral virtuosity, an important new composer, no question."
The Guardian

"These are precious gems and Orchestra of the Swan makes fine work under the able leadership of David Curtis"
Fanfare Magazine, USA

"a disc almost overstuffed with good things, played with great razzle-dazzle by Orchestra of the Swan"
Norman Lebrecht
